I. PURPOSE

- A. The Faculty Senate shall determine its own agenda, which will be particularly concerned with policies affecting educational activities and academic personnel related to the University as a whole and the relation of the various academic units to those policies and to one another.

II. MEMBERSHIP

- A. Representation. The voting membership of the Senate shall consist of approximately one Senator for every ten full-time appointed faculty members at the University. Representation of the elected members shall be approximately as follows: one Senator for every ten faculty members in each college or division of the University with appointed faculty; and six Senators elected at large. The Provost as Dean of the Faculty shall serve ex officio as a nonvoting member.
- B. Electorate. The electorate of the Senate, eligible to nominate, to elect, and to stand for election to the Senate, shall include:
1. all persons holding full-time continuing appointments as named in the APT Faculty Positions categories;
 2. all persons holding at least half-time appointments as named in the APT Faculty Positions categories with primary teaching responsibility for at least one full course per year; and
 3. administrators: Department Chairs, Assistant Deans, Associate Deans, Deans, Vice-Assistant Provosts, Associate Provosts and Vice Chancellors who devote at least one-half of their time to teaching, research, and/or creative activity.

- C. Term. The term of an elected Senator shall be three years. One-third of the total number of Senators (as nearly as practicable) shall be elected each year.
- D. Elections. Elections to the Senate shall be conducted by members of the University faculty in each unit as follows:
 - 1. Nominations shall be made by members of the voting unit. Procedures shall provide that every member of the electorate have the opportunity to place names in nomination.
 - 2. There shall be a reasonable number of nominations for Senators to be elected.
 - 3. Elections shall be conducted by secret ballot.
 - 4. Elections in the voting units shall be held before the first day of May.
 - 5. All faculty members (as defined in Sec. B) shall be eligible to nominate and to stand for the position of Senator at large.
 - 6. The Senators at large shall be elected, by secret ballot, at the May election meeting.
 - 7. Newly elected Senators shall take office at the end of the May election meeting.
- E. Adjusting representation. The Nominations, Credentials and Rules Committee shall be responsible for annual reviews of voting units and the number of Senators to be elected from each, and may make recommendations to the Senate for adjustments as required.
- F. Resignations for Leave. Any Senator who expects to be out-of-residence for more than four consecutive months (exclusive of summer) may resign membership in the Senate or the electing unit may name an alternate to serve while the Senator is on leave. If the Senator resigns, the named replacement will serve the remaining portion of the resigning Senator's term. Senators will be regarded as out-of-residence when they take sabbatical leave for more than one quarter or semester or engage in any activity which implies absence from the University.
- G. Filling Vacancies. In the event a Senator does not complete his/her term, the faculty of the voting unit shall elect, as soon as practicable, a replacement for the unexpired term.

III. OFFICERS

- A. Officers listed:
 - 1. President, representative ex officio to the Board of Trustees, elected for a single two-year term.
 - 2. President-elect, elected to a one-year term to coincide with the second year of the President's term, thereafter succeeds automatically to the Presidency.
 - 3. Secretary, elected for a two-year term.
 - 4. Chair of the Financial Planning Committee, member ex officio of the Board of Trustees Finance and Budget Committee, and Vice-Chair of University Budget Advisory Committee (UBAC), elected for a three-year term.
 - 5. The President, and Past-President or President-Elect, and one faculty member elected to a three-year term shall be representatives to the Board of Trustees Committee on Faculty and Educational Affairs.
 - 6. Communications Officer, elected for a two-year term.
 - 7. Past-President, serves a one-year term to coincide with the first year of the President's term.
- B. Elections. The officers of the Senate shall be elected by the Senate membership, at the last regular meeting in May of the academic year, after nomination by the Committee on Nominations, Credentials and Rules or by any Senator, at the last meeting before the May election meeting. All officers shall themselves be Senators, except that one of the three representatives to the Board of Trustees Committee on Faculty and Educational Affairs may be a faculty member who is not a Senator. If an officer's term as a Senator expires before his/her term as an officer, and the officer is not reelected to the Senate by the constituency, then the officer shall be appointed a Senator-at-large until the end of the term of office. Upon assuming the office of President, a Senator shall be assigned a three-year term as Senator at large and his/her unit shall elect a replacement.

C. Executive Committee. The President; President-elect; Past-President; Secretary; Chair of the Financial Planning Committee; Chairs of the Academic Planning Committee, Nominations, Credentials and Rules Committee, Personnel Committee, Student Relations Committee; two Senators elected as members-at-large to staggered two-year terms; and the Communications Officer shall constitute the Executive Committee of the Senate. Following the election of its members at the close of the spring quarter, the newly-constituted Executive Committee shall examine its membership to ascertain whether all major University constituencies are represented. If not, it may appoint one additional Senator as member-at-large for a one-year term. During the fall quarter, the Faculty Senate may elect up to two additional appointed faculty members as Executive Committee at-large members for one-year terms as warranted by the substantive issues to be addressed by the Senate in the coming year.

D. Vacancies.

1. President.

a) If the President is temporarily unable to perform the duties of the office, the President-elect will assume the duties; if no President-elect is in office, the Chair of the Financial Planning Committee shall assume the duties of the presidency, and may then be called Vice-President.

b) If a President vacates office during the second year of the term, the President-elect shall succeed to the presidency. If a president vacates office during the first term, the Secretary shall call an early meeting of the Senate to elect a President to finish out the unexpired term. In such rare cases, the Committee on Nominations, Credentials and Rules shall rule on the length of the partial term, eligibility for reelection, and time for election of another President-elect, in order to regularize terms.

2. Other officers. If the position of any other officer falls vacant, the President, with the approval of a majority of the Executive Committee, shall call an election or appoint a Senator to the unexpired term.

IV. POWERS, DUTIES, AND PROCEDURES

A. Powers and Duties.

1. Recommend policy. To formulate, debate and adopt policy recommendations regarding any aspect of the life of the University and to communicate these recommendations to the administration through the Provost, and as determined appropriate by the Senate and the Chancellor, to the Board of Trustees. The Senate's purview shall include, but shall not be restricted to:

a) Educational policies: such matters as admission requirements, curricula, degrees offered and degree requirements;

- b) Research policies: policies relating to faculty scholarship, research, and other creative activities;
 - c) Scholastic policies: such matters as grading, calendar, and conferring of degrees, which affect the entire University;
 - d) Personnel policies: policies relating to appointment and conditions of service of academic personnel;
 - e) Scholarships policies: policies to govern the awarding of scholarships and fellowships;
 - f) Policies governing affiliates: policies to regulate agreements between the University and other educational institutions which are or may become affiliated with it, especially concerning degrees, diplomas and certificates to be awarded by the affiliated institution; and
 - g) General: any policies which may serve to increase the quality or efficiency of the work of the University.
2. Consider finances. To receive from administrative officers appropriate information respecting the finances of the University and to disseminate that information insofar as it is deemed necessary for efficient work by the Senate.
 3. Consider conduct of University officers. To recommend policies to the administration to ensure the accountability of officers of instruction or administration; and to consider any questions that may arise concerning the conduct or efficiency of any officer of instruction or administration, reporting its findings to the Chancellor and, as determined appropriate by the Senate and the Chancellor, to the Board of Trustees.
 4. Appoint to University committees. To designate between one-quarter and one-half of the members (fraction to be determined in consultation with the Provost) of any all-University committee which deals with formulating policies or plans, recruiting key personnel, or like matters; and to receive interim, preliminary and final reports from such committees, so that standing Senate committees can contribute suggestions to their deliberations.
 5. Call General Faculty meetings. To call, with at least five days' notice, a General Faculty Meeting (through the President, with the approval of the Executive Committee) when need for one arises in addition to the two convened by the Provost during the Winter Quarter and before the close of the Spring Quarter.
 6. Invite consultants. To invite consultants from within or outside the University to participate in Senate deliberations, either by action of the Executive Committee or by a majority vote at a Senate meeting.
 7. Enact By-Laws. To adopt and amend such By-Laws as are deemed necessary to implement the provisions of this Constitution.
- B. Limitation of Powers. In addition to any other reservation or restriction herein contained, no exercise of Senate powers which changes admission requirements or graduation requirements shall take effect until specifically approved by the Board of Trustees. No commitment for the expenditure of University funds shall be made except as provided in the University budget or otherwise authorized by the Trustees and approved by the appropriate officers of the University. No contracts or agreements shall be signed by the officers or members of the Senate on behalf of the University.
- C. Procedures.

1. Majority and quorum for amending the Constitution. Amending this Constitution shall require notice of 30 days and a two-thirds vote of Senators. A quorum for such actions shall be seventy-five (75%) per cent of the Senate's members. If a quorum call fails, either the President or the members in attendance may adjourn the meeting to a new time, at least five days later, and inform all Senators of the agenda. At the next meeting, a reduced quorum requirement of sixty (60%) percent of the membership shall be in effect for those agenda items re-listed.
2. Majority and quorum for a motion or election of officers. Passage of a motion or election of officers shall require notice of 30 days and a simple majority vote of Senators. A quorum for such actions shall be fifty percent (50%) of the Senate's members. If a quorum call fails, either the President or the members in attendance may adjourn the meeting to a new time, at least five days later, and inform all Senators of the agenda. At the next meeting, a reduced quorum requirement of forty (40%) per cent of the membership shall be in effect for those agenda items re-listed.
3. Proxies. A Senator who must be absent from a Senate meeting may designate any other faculty member to attend and vote on her/his behalf. Such designation must be written and presented to the President at or before the beginning of the Senate meeting. A faculty member may serve as a proxy for only one Senator at a Senate meeting.
4. Accessibility. Faculty, staff, and other members of the University community may bring their concerns regarding University policies directly to the attention of a Senate committee or, with prior approval from the Executive Committee or the President, to the Senate floor for a limited time prearranged with the President.
5. Term Limits. Standing Committee Chairs are limited to two consecutive three-year terms; additional three-year terms are permitted.

V. STANDING AND AD HOC COMMITTEES

- A. General Functioning. The Senate's standing committees shall be the normal, but not exclusive, forum for the formulation of faculty recommendations respecting policies and plans likely to affect the life of the University. Such issues, referred to the Senate by Senators, other faculty members, staff members or administrators, shall be debated in committee; ensuing recommendations, after possible modifications and acceptance by the full Senate, shall be promptly forwarded to the Provost by the Senate President and, when determined appropriate by the Senate and the Chancellor, to the Board of Trustees. When, however, the administration appoints an ad hoc committee to deal with a special problem of policy or planning, then lines of communication with the Senate shall be assured as provided in IV.A.4.
- B. Standing Committees.
 1. The Executive Committee is constituted as in III.C. Its functions shall be to represent the Senate when the Senate is not in session, to coordinate the work of the other standing committees, to conduct long-range planning for the Senate, and to prepare the agenda for meetings of the full Senate. The Executive Committee shall meet at least once per quarter with the Chancellor, with the Provost (see V.B.2) and with the Vice-Chancellor for Business and Financial Affairs (see V.B.3). The Executive Committee shall hold quarterly meetings with all interested faculty and students.

2. The Academic Planning Committee shall normally be composed of no fewer than ten Senators. (1) APC shall recommend to the Senate policies pertaining to: curriculum & quality of instruction; research & scholarship funding; instructional & scholarly technology; long-range planning. (2) APC shall appoint one representative to serve on Undergraduate Council (two-year term); two representatives each to serve on the Library Advisory Committee and the Graduate Council (one to represent the three faculties and the other to represent the professional schools; staggered two-year terms); one representative to serve on the Internationalization Council (two-year term); one representative to serve on the Athletic Committee (two-year term); and one representative to serve on the Distance Learning Committee (two-year term). (3) APC shall meet twice per year, once in fall and once in spring, with the Associate Provost for Research to review and make recommendations about applications for the Faculty Research Fund (FRF). (4) The APC may opt to meet once per quarter jointly with the Executive Committee and the Provost.
3. The Financial Planning Committee shall normally be composed of no fewer than six Senators. This committee shall, in consultation with the Executive Committee, initiate such studies of financial policy as may contribute to the maximum effectiveness of the program of the University. It may also engage in studies requested by the administration through the Executive Committee of the Senate. The Committee shall meet once per quarter jointly with the Executive Committee, the Provost, and the Vice-Chancellor for Business and Financial Affairs.
4. The Nominations, Credentials and Rules Committee shall normally be composed of no fewer than six Senators. This committee shall establish procedures for nomination and election of officers and shall make nominations. It shall determine eligibility for membership in the Senate, in accordance with II.B; shall appoint standing committees, in accordance with V.C; keep files of committee memberships; inform each voting unit when a Senate seat is vacated; and, shall periodically consider the need for bringing the Constitution and By-Laws into conformity with current Senate practice. The committee shall, upon request of the President or the Executive Committee, assist in appointing Senate representatives to all-University committees.
5. The Personnel Committee shall normally be composed of no fewer than six Senators. This committee shall evaluate and recommend to the Senate all matters of policy respecting academic freedom, tenure, rank, advancement, evaluation, and improvement of services, salaries, and retirement annuities for faculty. The committee shall also consider and evaluate requests for sabbatical leaves and recommend faculty recipients of University honors.
6. The Student Relations Committee shall normally be composed of no fewer than six Senators. This committee shall investigate and make recommendations regarding academic and non-academic components of student and alumni life at the University. It shall also pay attention to student support services such as the Driscoll University Center, the Daniel L. Ritchie Sports and Wellness Center, and the bookstore. The Committee shall facilitate communication regarding these issues among faculty, staff, administrators, students and alumni and report annually to the Senate and to the student body on the progress of the Inclusive Learning Environments Initiative. The Committee, or members thereof, shall meet at least once per quarter with associate provosts and vice provosts in the undergraduate and graduate areas and in Campus Life, as well as with a representative from the Office of Alumni Relations.

C. Appointment of Standing Committees.

1. Before the first of May, continuing Senators may request reassignment to a new committee for the coming year.
2. At the election meeting in May, the Nominations, Credentials and Rules Committee shall distribute and collect questionnaires for all new Senators to record at least two committees, ranked, on which they would prefer to serve.
3. The members of the Executive Committee in place at the close of the election meeting shall meet within two days to appoint Senators to vacancies in the Nominations, Credentials and Rules Committee.
4. Within a week of the election meeting, the newly constituted Nominations, Credentials and Rules Committee shall appoint members to all other standing committees and report them to the Secretary. Appointments both by the Executive Committee (see preceding section) and by the Nominations, Credentials and Rules Committee shall give due consideration to a) Senators' preferences, b) continuity of committee membership, and c) balance in each committee among Senate constituencies. Generally a Senator shall sit on only one committee.
5. Before the date of the first Senate Executive Committee meeting in the Fall Quarter, each standing committee, except Financial Planning, shall elect a chair for a three-year term and organize itself. The Chair shall report to the Nominations, Credentials and Rules Committee and the Senate Secretary the committee's choice of its secretary and chairs of subcommittees where appropriate.
6. All members of standing committees must be members of the Senate, unless otherwise ordered by the Senate; but committees may form subcommittees which include faculty members who are not Senators.

D. Reports. All standing committees shall submit written reports of their work before the end of each academic year, to be filed with committee records, and shall report orally to the full Senate.

E. Ad Hoc Committees. An ad hoc committee, with specified charge and specified term, may be elected by the Senate at any meeting, or may be appointed by the Executive Committee subject to final consent of the Senate. Faculty members who are not Senators are eligible for appointment to ad hoc committees. When the ad hoc committee has fulfilled its charge, it shall submit a written report to the Senate.

VI. ADVISORY COMMITTEES

A. Faculty Review Committee.

1. Function: the committee shall consider for review, investigation, and evaluation appeals by faculty members, including but not limited to, matters such as:
 - a) Faculty status, working conditions, and appointments;
 - b) Salary allocations, providing that a pattern of inequity extending over at least a two-year period is alleged;

- c) Misconduct in Research;
 - d) Faculty Development (Policies And Procedures for Faculty Development, Job Responsibility Distributions, and Peer-To-Peer Conversations);
 - e) Employee Grievance Process;
 - f) Reappointment, promotion, or tenure, if the Provost has recommended in the negative and the appellant alleges lack of adequate consideration (Policies and Procedures Relating to Faculty Appointment, Promotion, and Tenure (APT)) or violation of academic freedom; and
 - g) Termination for cause.
2. Election of Committee and its Chair
- a) Representation.
 - (1) One member shall be appointed at-large by the Provost to serve as chair for a three-year term.
 - (2) Arts and Humanities, Daniels College of Business, Natural Sciences and Mathematics, Social Sciences, and Sturm College of Law shall elect two members each; Joseph Korbel School of International Studies, Graduate School of Professional Psychology, Graduate School of Social Work, Morgridge College of Education, Ritchie School of Engineering and Computer Science, University College, University Library, and Writing Program shall elect one member each. Members shall be elected to staggered three-year terms ending in the fall quarter of the third year. NCR Committee shall determine the rotation of electing units, modifying the plan from time to time to effect optimal representation of all Senate constituencies.
 - (3) As many as three additional members may be appointed by the Senate Executive Committee for a one-year term in order to achieve diversity on the Committee and rectify perceived underrepresentation.
 - (4) One member may be appointed by the Executive Committee for the hearing of a single case, if the appellant's academic unit is not currently represented on the Committee. The appointment must be made from that academic unit at the request of the appellant.
 - b) Procedures.
 - (1) The Senate shall keep lists of the Committee members and their terms, and organize elections each April in units to fill seats as it determines.
 - (2) As soon as elections are completed, the Senate Executive Committee shall determine whether further appointments are needed to serve the cause of diversity, and make such appointments.
 - (3) The Provost's appointee shall convene the Committee, as constituted in section 2a above, no later than the end of June.
 - (4) For the business of the Committee, any seven members shall constitute a quorum.
3. Reports.
- a) To the Senate. At the close of the academic year the Committee shall report on the process of its deliberations and shall report, to the extent possible without compromising the confidentiality essential to its work, on any significant general findings to the Personnel Committee of the Senate.

- b) To the administration. The Committee shall report severally on the validity of each individual complaint and may recommend remedies either for procedural inadequacies or for inequities or injustices. These findings shall be reported to the immediate administrative superior of the complainant, to the appropriate dean, and to the Provost.
- B. Faculty Athletic Committee.
- 1. Function: the committee shall protect the academic integrity of the University and insure the primacy of the educational experience in athletic programs, in three ways:
 - a) formulating and recommending policy to the Provost regarding all aspects of athletic programs at the University, including, but not limited to, policies to assure that athletes have the opportunity to participate fully in the processes of educational and career development, and to assure that admissions officers, administrators, faculty and students are protected from inappropriate pressures associated with athletic performance;
 - b) monitoring the educational experiences of student-athletes and the impact of athletics on all academic programs at the University; and,
 - c) assuring that there is regular and open sharing of information with the university community about all aspects of the University's athletic programs, including information about new and existing policies, information about the academic performance of student athletes and academic support services for them, and information about the finances of athletic programs and their impact on the University budget.
 - 2. Composition of the Committee.
 - a) Membership
 - (1) Voting members:
 - (a) Faculty representatives: six members elected by and from the faculty of the Division of Arts and Humanities, the Division of Social Sciences, the Division of Natural Sciences & Mathematics, the Daniel Felix Ritchie School of Engineering & Computer Science, the Daniels College of Business, and the Josef Korbel School of International Studies shall serve staggered three-year terms;
 - (b) Senate representatives: three members of the Faculty Senate appointed by the Executive Committee to represent it and Academic Planning and Student Relations Committees shall serve renewable two-year terms;
 - (c) Student representatives: two undergraduate student-athletes competing at the intercollegiate level shall serve staggered two-year terms;
 - (d) the NCAA Faculty Athletic Representative (appointed by the Chancellor in consultation with the President of the Faculty Senate); and,
 - (e) the Vice Chancellor for Athletics and Recreation and Ritchie Center Operations.
 - (2) Non-voting members:
 - (a) the University Registrar;
 - (b) the Associate Provosts for undergraduate academics and campus life;
 - (c) the University Compliance Officer; and
 - (d) the Associate Athletic Directors over sports.
 - b) Election and Appointment Procedures:

- (1) Faculty representatives:
 - (a) The Senate shall keep lists of the Committee members and their terms, and organize elections each April in units to fill seats as it determines.
 - (b) During the Spring Quarter of each academic year, the Senate Nominations, Credentials and Rules Committee shall coordinate elections to replace faculty members who are approaching the end of their terms.
 - (c) NCR shall solicit nominations from all faculty with a statement of the purpose and duties of the Committee.
 - (d) All nominations submitted must certify the nominee's agreement to serve.
 - (e) The NCR Committee shall determine the rotation of electing units (as defined in Article V, section 2.a.1), modifying the plan from time to time to effect optimal representation of all Senate constituencies.
 - (2) Student representatives:
 - (a) The Director of Athletics shall determine the procedure for electing or appointing the two student-athletes.
 - c) Officers and their duties:
 - (1) The voting members shall elect a chair from the ranks of the elected or appointed faculty members for a two-year term. The chair will be responsible for calling meetings, setting agendas, representing the Committee to Board of Trustees Athletic Affairs Committee, and organizing reports for the Athletic Affairs Committee, the Faculty Senate, and the University community.
 - (2) The voting members shall annually elect a second representative to the Board of Trustees Athletic Affairs Committee.
3. Reports.
- a) The three Faculty Senate representatives will report regularly on the Committee's activities, deliberations, policies and reports to their respective standing committees (Academic Planning, Student Relations, and Financial Planning) and to the full Senate.
 - b) Regularly each quarter (Fall, Winter and Spring), at the invitation of the Senate President, the Director of Athletics and Recreation shall report to the Senate on all aspects of the University's athletic programs, and respond to questions.
 - c) The elected chair and second representative (section 2.c) above) shall serve as faculty liaisons to the Athletic Affairs Committee of the Board of Trustees. They will provide reports and recommendations from the FAC to the Athletic Affairs Committee, and will report the Athletic Affairs Committee's activities and decisions back to the FAC, the Faculty Senate, and the University community.
- C. University Budget Advisory Committee (UBAC).
1. Function: the committee shall inform resource allocation recommendations that transform strategic goals into achievable operating plans that optimize use of University resources. Specifically, the UBAC will be guided by the university strategic plan and strategic imperatives to include:
 - a) Providing advice and recommendations to maintain a transparent, informative, and participatory budgeting process;

- b) Review pertinent peer practices, data, and research;
 - c) Share ideas on cost containment, efficiency of operations and redundancies, and possibilities for revenue enhancement; and
 - d) Maintain open communication channels by holding regularly scheduled meetings to discuss current budget issues (with multiple constituencies), acting as stewards of the budget process.
2. Composition of the Committee.
- a) Membership
 - (1) Financial Planning Committee (FPC) Chair: automatic appointment;
 - (2) Two Faculty Representatives;
 - (3) Provost;
 - (4) Senior Vice Chancellor for Business and Financial Affairs;
 - (5) Vice-Provost for Budget, Planning, and Administration; and
 - (6) Students, staff, and academic deans.
 - b) Election and Appointment Procedures
 - (1) Two members of the faculty will receive appointments to the UBAC. One appointed faculty member that is elected by Faculty Senate to a three-year term. One appointed faculty member recommended by the FSEC and approved by the Faculty Senate to a term of one to three years. The term will be determined in consultation with the appointee based on capacity to serve and the need to stagger terms of faculty appointments.
 - (2) Students, staff, and academic deans selected by the Provost and Senior Vice Chancellor for Business and Financial Affairs with consultation from the FPC Chair and the Vice-Provost for Budget, Planning, and Administration.
 - c) Officers and their duties.
 - (1) The Provost and Senior Vice Chancellor for Business and Financial Affairs will co-chair the committee.
 - (2) The Vice-Provost for Budget, Planning, and Administration and FPC Chair will serve as vice-chairs. As vice-chairs, they will be included in agenda setting discussions for the committee.
3. Reports.
- a) The FPC Chair and the two elected faculty representatives will report quarterly on the Committee's activities, deliberations, and reports to the full Senate.
 - b) The FPC Chair and the two elected faculty representatives will at least quarterly seek input from the Faculty Senate for topics for deliberation at UBAC.

VII. MEETINGS

- A. Meeting Calls. The Senate shall normally hold monthly meetings throughout the academic year. Special meetings may be held also, on call of the President or on petition of ten Senators. Written notice of each meeting shall be sent to all Senators at least five days before the date of the meeting, with an agenda of the meeting.
- B. Attendance and Excuses. Regular attendance is required of Senators; absence from three consecutive Senate meetings without due cause shall be cause for revocation of the Senator's membership.
- C. Participation. Attendance at meetings of the Faculty Senate is open to all members of the University community. Participation in any meeting, however, is restricted to Senators and any guests specifically invited to participate (e.g. as in IV.C.3, V.C.6, or V.E).

- D. Rules. Operations of Senate meetings shall be governed by Roberts Rules of Order (latest revision) wherever applicable and not superseded by other regulations of this Constitution or the By-Laws of the Faculty Senate.

VIII. AMENDMENTS

- A. Vote. Amendments to this Constitution shall require notice of 30 days and a two-thirds vote of Senators. A quorum for such actions shall be seventy-five (75%) per cent of the Senate's members. If a quorum call fails, either the President or the members in attendance may adjourn the meeting to a new time, at least five days later, and inform all Senators of the agenda. At the next meeting, a reduced quorum requirement of sixty (60%) per cent of the membership shall be in effect for those agenda items re-listed.
- B. Board approval. An amendment shall take effect only after approval by the Board of Trustees of the University of Denver.

Adopted by The Senate at its regular meeting of 20 Nov 1986, amended at meetings of 24 Nov 1986, 19 Jan 1987, 21 Jan 1987, 2 Mar 1987, 26 Jan 1990, 11 May 1990, 15 Nov 1990, 31 Mar 1995, 19 May 1995, 12 April 1996, 14 Feb 1996, 14 Mar 1997, 3 Apr 1998, 12 March 1999, 8 June 2001, 7 May 2010, 28 April 2017, 20 April 2018, 8 March 2019, 6 May 2022, and 7 April 2023.
